

school districts or lower income school districts, but I think it's going to be interesting. I've seen it happen in the real world. I think we'll see it now happen in the government rule. Thank you.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Senator Fisher. Chair recognizes Senator Witek. Question's been called. Do I see five hands? I do. Those in favor of calling the question, indicate by voting aye; those opposed vote nay. Clerk, record.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 27 ayes, 5 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SENATOR WESELY: The question's been called. The Chair recognizes Senator Bernard-Stevens to close on his motion.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you, Senator Wesely, members of the body. I am going to bring this to a vote, so as a roll call I will then not vote and move to reconsider only because this is probably the biggest property tax measure, actually, it is probably the biggest thing this Legislature has done in a long time. These packages are probably going to have the most effect on the most number of people and take us in a different direction, be it good or bad, than anything we have done in the Legislature since I can remember, at least, and Senator Warner can go much further back than that. But we don't want everyone to be able to at least have five minutes to state why they want to do, why they think they should do the way they want to do. I don't know what the hurry is. We've got some bills that we certainly will read on Final Reading. We don't have anything else today, but we just don't want people, I guess, to say anything. We want to just get it done, vote on it, get it out of the way; we want to go home. Well, a couple of things I want to talk about in closing before we get to the...before we get a chance to talk about it just a little bit more and, again, I am not delaying. I just want to make sure that people who did want to say something can. And if no one wants to at the end of that, during the reconsideration if no one wants to speak on it, certainly I will withdraw that motion and we will move right on. The perception that is out there that we have created in the Legislature is that the public is going to have property tax relief. I almost laugh in a way because remember LB 1059. There was a perception out there that there was going to be property tax relief. You know, and there was. There was like
